

Bug Body Hack

5 Major Groups

Groups	Defining Characteristics	Images
Insects	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Some have 1 or 2 pairs of wings 1 pair of antennae 3 body parts (head, thorax, abdomen) 3 pairs of legs (6 legs)
Arachnids (includes spiders and scorpions)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No wings No antennae 1 or 2 body parts If it is 2 segments they are the cephalothorax and abdomen 4 pairs of legs (8 legs)
Centipedes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No wings 1 pair of antennae Many body segments 1 pair of legs per segment (2 total for each segment)
Crustaceans	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No wings 2 pairs of antennae 2 body segments 5 or more pairs of legs (10 total)
Millipedes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No wings 1 pair of antennae Many body segments 2 pairs of legs per segment (4 total for each segment)

*All groups of arthropods have jointed legs or feet, have a hard exoskeleton, and are bilaterally symmetrical.